Board meetings - 4th Thursday of the month
See back page for calendar of events.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

May was a busy month for CAFCI. We executed two major programs during the month of May: our Student Assistance Awards and our Cultural Diversity Day programs.

Student Assistance Awards: Thanks to the generosity of our members, friends and supporters, we were able to award over $16,500 financial scholarships to twenty-one bright and ambitious students from our local community. These students will be going to various colleges and technical schools to pursue advanced degrees. Special thanks to Nadine White-Boyd and Junette Powell, co-chairs of the student assistance committee, and committee members: Lorianne Cabrera, Leonie Escoffery, Clover Henry-Gilroy, Cedric Lynch and Alpha McDonald for all their hard work in soliciting and raising funds; for selecting the recipients and for making the evening special.

Cultural Diversity Day: For the past twelve years, CAFCI, the Village of Royal Palm Beach and the Palm Beach Cultural Council, have partnered to bring together people from diverse cultural backgrounds to celebrate their culture in dance, song and various performances. This year's event was truly diverse with performances from local Indian and Chinese groups as well as performances from the various Caribbean and American groups. The crowd thoroughly enjoyed the food, fashion, history and entertainment. This event represented our core mission "To maintain and sustain the quality of life for the community consistent with the culture and tradition of our diverse ancestral heritage." Special thanks to Elet Cyris, and her team for the incredible amount of work to put this event together. The task of getting various acts from different performers and cultures is not an easy one. Once again, this team executed flawlessly. This year's Cultural Scout Update: Troop 111 celebrated their 34th Eagle Scout; a tremendous accomplishment and a true testament to the leaders. Besides our graduates, two of our older scouts camped for the last time the weekend of May 28th as Boy Scouts. They will be turning 18 and leaving the Troop. We are also losing their dads, two fantastic Assistant Scout Masters. While we are proud to see these young men move up, it is sad to see them go.

CAFCI Scouts

Pack 120 had their Crossover the weekend of May 28th. Four new Scouts crossed from Cub Scouts and were welcomed into Boy Scout Troop 111. School is out and all are waiting for the exciting summer camp outs they've been preparing for all year.

CAFCI 2016 STUDENT ASSISTANCE AWARD CEREMONY Celebrating The Academic Excellence of Local Students

CAFCI's Student Assistance Awards Committee hosted their 24th annual Student Assistance Awards ceremony on Saturday, May 14, 2016 at the original Wellington Mall. As part of CAFCI's mission, the organization is committed to empowering youth through providing access to educational opportunities. Over the past 24 years, CAFCI has given a total of $77,000 in financial support. This year CAFCI was proud to award assistance of $500-$1,000 to 21 deserving students. The committee consisting of co-chairs, Junette Powell and Nadine White-Boyd, Esq., and committee members Lori Cabrera (who sang the tribute to the recipients), Leonie Escoffery (who was our illustrious MC for the evening), Clover Henry Gilroy (who introduced the guest speaker), Alpha McDonald (who gave the vote of thanks) and Dr. Cedric Lynch (who was absent due to his Mother's death) had the pleasure of reviewing the students' applications and interviewing the students; and the very difficult job of choosing which students would receive an award.

The Honorable Fred Pinto, Mayor of the Village of Royal Palm Beach, put it best when he noted that we often hear negative stories and commentaries about the crisis in our youth today, but after learning about the stellar accomplishments and career goals of the award recipients, he felt incredibly confident about the positive impact that these young people would have as the future leaders of the nation. School Board member Marcia Andrews was also in attendance and gave a message of support and encouragement to the students. She advised them to be proud of what they have achieved academically and also in the community that reflected their sense of civic responsibility. Ms. Andrews reminded the awardees that, despite the challenges and obstacles that life presents, they must never give up on pursuing their dreams.

The keynote speaker was the very dynamic A. Wayne Gill, Esq. whose motivational words to the students connected with everyone in attendance. He emphasized that technology has truly made the world a global marketplace. Young people must become conscious of the fact that their competition will come from every corner of the earth, and in order to maintain academic and professional excellence, they will have to work harder and smarter than the competition. Gill urged the students to build on the effort that earned them the award they were receiving and embrace the challenge of being the future leaders and trailblazers of a rapidly changing world.

Undeniably, the highlight of the evening was when the awardees were called to the stage to receive their certificates. Each student gave a short yet very stirring and often poignant speech thanking family members and mentors who inspired them to believe in themselves and to strive for excellence.

Letter from a 2016 Student Assistance Recipient

Hello, my name is Ivan Cowans, a recipient of the 2016 Caribbean American for Community Involvement Scholarship. I am emailing you to thank you for the check and to let you know that I thoroughly enjoyed the ceremony last Saturday, May 14th. There were many highlights to the event and the speakers and presenters all had inspiring and empowering information to share with us.

"The world is flat" by Mr. Gill is one that comes to mind (my science teachers were wrong haha), how technology has shrunk the world in terms of how we can freely communicate with people across great distances. Ms. Andrews' inspiring speech where she described us as shooting stars is another one that I fondly remember. Mayor Pinto's analogy to us about being like starfish on the beach, as we have been given this great opportunity was also quite thought provoking. During the refreshments part of the ceremony, I got to interact with some of my peers and meet many of the guests present. Overall, everyone made me feel very welcome and the atmosphere was warm and supportive, almost like a family event. Thank you for all you do.

JUNE IS.....

CARIBBEAN-AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Caribbean immigrants have been contributing to the well-being of American society since its founding. Alexander Hamilton, the First Secretary of the Treasury was from the Caribbean island of Nevis. We count among our famous sons and daughters, Secretary of State Colin Powell, Cicely Tyson, W.E.B. Dubois, James Weldon Johnson, Harry Belafonte and Sidney Poitier to name a few. The Institute of Caribbean Studies' (ICS) effort began in 1999 with a petition to President Bill Clinton for the recognition of a Caribbean American Heritage Month. In 2000, ICS began leading activities in celebration of June as Caribbean American Heritage Month in Washington DC, building on efforts started by a now defunct ad-hoc group of Washington DC residents to have a Caribbean Heritage Month designated in Washington DC in 1999.

The official campaign for a National Caribbean American Heritage Month began in 2004 when a legislative bill was tabled in Congress by Congresswoman Barbara Lee. Language was provided by ICS Founder and President Dr. Claire Nelson. The Bill was reintroduced by Congressman Lee and passed the House in June 2005 and the Senate in February 2006. A Proclamation making the resolution official was signed by President George W. Bush on June 5, 2006. In 2006, actress and singer Sheryl Lee Ralph and basketball great Rick Fox were named official spokespersons for National Caribbean American Heritage Month. Learn more at www.caribbeanamericanheritage.org. Each year, ICS works with our partners at a number of organizations to present a parade of events for varied palates. Learn more about this year's events at www.caribbeanamericanheritage.org.

2016 HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS

MAKE A HURRICANE PLAN

- Know your hurricane risk. Talk to your local emergency management agency.
- Make an emergency plan.
- Build or restock your basic disaster supplies kit, including food and water, a flashlight, batteries, chargers, cash, and first aid supplies.
- Consider buying flood insurance.
- Familiarize yourself with local emergency plans. Know where to go and how to get there should you need to get to higher ground or to evacuate.
- Stay tuned to local wireless emergency alerts, TV, or radio for weather updates, emergency instructions, or evacuation orders.

BASIC PREPAREDNESS TIPS

- Know where to go. If you are ordered to evacuate, know the local hurricane evacuation route(s) to take and have a plan for where you can stay. Contact your local emergency management agency for more information.
- Put together a disaster supply kit, including a flashlight, batteries, cash, first aid supplies, and copies of your critical information if you need to evacuate
- If you are not in an area that is advised to evacuate and you decide to stay in your home, plan for adequate supplies in case you lose power and water for several days and you are not able to leave due to flooding or blocked roads.
- Make a family emergency communication plan.
- Many communities have text or email alerting systems for emergency notifications. To find out what alerts are available in your area, search the Internet with your town, city, or county name and the word "alerts."

PREPARING YOUR HOME

- Hurricane winds can cause trees and branches to fall, so before hurricane season, trim or remove damaged trees and limbs to keep you and your property safe.
- Secure loose rain gutters and downspouts and clear any clogged areas or debris to prevent water damage to your property.
- Reduce property damage by retrofitting to secure and reinforce the roof, windows and doors, including the garage doors.
- Purchase a portable generator or install a generator for use during power outages. Remember to keep generators and other alternate power/heat sources outside, at least 20 feet away from windows and doors and protected from moisture; and NEVER try to power the house wiring by plugging a generator into a wall outlet.
- Consider building a FEMA safe room or ICC 500 storm shelter designed for protection from high-winds and in locations above flooding levels.

Although we have not completed the plan, a couple opportunities have presented themselves and we are following up on both of them. Things are currently very fluid and we ask that members and friends be prepared to support any “sudden” or “quick” opportunities that may arise.
